

Special Instructions:

Carve out the black area. This should be the negative space on your pumpkin where the light shines through.

Start carving with the teeth and spade. Then work from the smallest sections to the largest sections. This will provide greater stability while carving out the smaller details.